cipal cities in the United States.

WANTED.

Gold, Silver and old Bank Notes, and United States compound Interest Notes.

Powers of Military Com- munications.

The declaration or supplemental act passed by the present Congress leaves no doubt as to the powers of the military commanders.

The present state of government is continued subject to the controls of military commanders and the authority of Congress.

These commanders have power to promote, remove, and fill the various offices.

They also have power to prohibit, suspend or set aside any act or proceeding of the State or city not in the case under or by virtue of the army.

Neither the Attorney General, the Courts nor the President himself in any manner interferes with them in the discharge of the duties imposed upon them.

We present this with full confidence in the correctness of the position of the Government.

SCHOOLS.

Talladega has all the educational advantages equal to any town in Alabama.

The healthfulness of the locality, the facilities for realizing it, the intelligence, morality and refinement of the citizens. The healthful restraining and elevating influence which a well organized Christian community must have in moulding the character of the young student.

The fact that it can be obtained at a much lower rate than upon very moderate terms, are all strong inducements to parents to send their children to Talladega, to be educated.

We have excellent schools, Male and Female and hope to see them open in the Fall, with even a larger number of pupils, than they have had during the past year.

Southwood for boys. The Presbyterian Collegiate Institute and Dr. Snow's Private School for girls in town and White Chapel in the immediate vicinity, offer superior facilities. Patrons make their selection.

WE clip the following article from the Macon Telegraph, with the earnest hope that it will make those who own us heartily ashamed of themselves.

Many of our parents seem not to be aware of the fact that it requires money to conduct a newspaper. We have to pay the cash for the labor and every article used in our business.

We appeal to those in debt or subscription, advertising or job work, to pay in something. If you cannot pay all pay a part. If you cannot pay, pay in proportion. A portion of any kind of country produce will do as well as the money. But just do not enjoy the fruits of another's labor without recompence. It is not honest.

The above is a fair specimen of a standing complaint in most of the country papers. Suppose a merchant or any other man but a printer, should be compelled to pay in the brokenback style, what would be thought of him? Why is it that of all protestations and claims the publishers of newspapers alone reduce themselves to such humiliation in their time and labor of little value so that they should thus fritter them away and take all sorts of chances for compensation? We cannot understand it. Some printers are foolish enough to let them off, but they are by far the most occupying associations and in order to get a list they continue to send their papers from year to year to just anybody who will order them, and take the chances of pay. This results in half lost, and if it does not take twenty-five per cent of its value to collect the other half, it has to be begged for as a sort of charity and then received in cups and whiskeys.

When will printers learn wisdom and self-respect?

AN IMPORTANT NOTICE.—D.
E. COON, Inspector of Internal Revenue, gives notice that the Hon. JAMES BURNEY, Collector of U. S. Internal Revenue, will remain in this city to-day and tomorrow.

Persons who have neglected to affix stamps to receipts on the Stationers' Office books, should appear at once and have them affixed and cancelled.

The penalty of the law will be strictly enforced after Aug. 1st. Persons should govern themselves accordingly. Neglect in this important matter will not only occasion serious trouble, but also a heavy fine. Go at once.

Associated Press Reports
FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—For the accounts of the Fort Waller fight six cavalrymen were killed. The soldiers were driven into the fort. A commanding officer who was captured was badly mutilated.

Thirteen negro soldiers died of cholesterol at Fort Harker.

The Bluffton clothiers fix the date of Santa Anna's presence in the state from the following facts.

On the 12th one of the partners left for New York and returned on the 15th. During his absence Sumrall visited the store to have clothes made, but the tailors did not have the kind of material he wanted. The alibi is regarded as absolutely established.

The House to-day passed the petition of the Legislature of Arkansas for an appropriation to improve the Mississippi levees, received a vote of 64 to 42, and was referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

The resolution of the petition was opposed on the ground that Arkansas was no State, and therefore the Legislature couldn't vote.

The schooner Bergen, from Charleston, bound for Boston, loaded with common resin, was burned at sea. Her narrow escape in a boat. They were picked up and brought here by the schooner Sylvan, Capt. Blumchard.

FROM LANCASTER, PA.
LANCASTER, July 12.—The cotton mill exploded. One of the boilers was carried over the square. The engineer was killed.
Superintendent's legs and one arm were broken. Several women were scalped. A considerable portion of the factory is in ruins.

FROM WASHINGTON.
WASHINGTON, July 13.—Miss Olivia Jenkins examined.

The wife of Mrs. Suratt slept with her during most of the time; heard of none of the related remarks which Weichmann swears on the night of the 14. Mrs. Suratt showed no unusual excitement; witness testified that Mrs. Suratt had shown no unusual excitement when she was pressed by a woman in the neighborhood whom she owed money was excluded.

The Register of Canadensis, with the name of John Weichmann registered on the 16th, was produced in Court. Defense insisted that the register should be shown to jury. Court reserved decision and adjourned.

The following is the text of the bill as it passed both Houses.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress Assembled, That it is hereby declared to have been the true intent and meaning of the act of the 2nd of March, 1867, entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel states, and of the act supplementary thereto, passed on the 23d of March, 1867, that the governments then existing in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Texas, and Arkansas, were not legal State governments, and if continued, were continued objects in all respects to the injurious commanders of the respective Districts and to the paramount authority of Congress.

Sec. 2. That the commander of any district named in the said act shall be constituted to the disenfranchisement of the army of the United States, to have effect till disapproved, whenever, in the opinion of such commander, the proper administration of said act shall require it, to suspend or remove from office or from the performance of official duties, any officer or person holding or exercising or professing to hold or exercise any civil or military office or duty in such district, under any power by election, appointment or authority derived from, or granted by, or claimed under any so-called State or the government thereof, or any municipal or other division thereof.
And upon such suspension or removal, such commander, subject to the disapproval of the General of the army, as aforesaid, shall have power to provide from time to time for the performance of the duties of such office or person so suspended or removed by the appointment of some other officer or soldier of the army, or by the appointment of some other person to perform the same and to fill vacancies occasioned by the death, resignation or otherwise of such officer or person.

The correspondence shown Grant is strongly inclined toward the latitude claimed by the commander under the old law.

A bill passed the House appropriating $1,675,000 for reconstruction. During the discussion Mr. Eldridge spoke about the performance of the General as aforesaid, and the duties of such officer or person
of such officer or person.
